(c) if so, the targets achieved so far and how many AIDS patients are getting this medicine free of cost at present?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (DR. ANBUMANI RAMDOSS): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government of India launched free antiretroviral treatment on 1st April, 2004.

(b) The commitment to provide ART to 100,000 patients by end of 2005 was an aspiration. The targets as approved by the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs for ART with support from Global Fund under Round IV are as below:

	Targets
Year	No. of ART Centres to be operational	No. of patients to be on ART
2005	25	5,000
2006	50	25,000
2007	120	50,000
2008	188	75,000
2009	188	125,000
2010	188	180,000

(c) Presently a total of 60638 patients are receiving free ART in Govt. facilities including inter-sectoral partners.

Non-working of dispensary on working days

2058. SHRI VARINDER SINGH BAJWA: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether ayurvedic dispensary in Janakpuri, New Delhi under C.G.H.S. remained closed on a number of working days on October, 2006;

(b) if so, the exact duration for which the dispensary remained closed which caused undue inconvenience and hardship to the users, particularly the senior citizens and the reasons for this; and

(c) whether responsibility has been fixed who caused this situation and could not make proper arrangements to keep the dispensary open on the working days and the steps taken to ensure that such situation does not recur?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (DR. ANBUMANI RAMDOSS): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The functioning of Ayurvedic dispensary Janakpuri-I was suspended temporarily for three days during 10th, 11th and 12th October, 2006, due to shortage of Ayurvedic physicians under CGHS.

Two doctors were posted during that period in this dispensary and one of them was granted pre-planned earned leave on 22.9.2006 for the period 3.10.2006 to 14.10.2006. The second doctor posted in Jankpuri-I Ayurvedic dispensary, suddenly fell sick and could not report for duty on the above mentioned three days in October, 2006, as a result of which the dispensary could not function for 3 days.

To prevent any inconvenience to the beneficiaries of Janakpuri-I dispensary, they were attached to the nearby Delhi Cantt. Ayurvedic Unit, which is at a distance of about 2 Kms from Jankpuri Dispensary.

(c) In view of (a) and (b) above, question does not arise.
